Abstractor Licenses:

Renewal applications for abstractor licenses are due 30 days before expiration. If licensees submit their applications after the 30 day deadline, but before the license expires, they may do one of the following:

1. Pay a fine in the amount of $100.00 and have their license extended for one month until the next Board meeting; or
2. Pay no fine, allow their license to expire, submit their application to be reinstated as an abstractor, take the licensing test at the next available date and be placed on the agenda for approval on the month following the testing. They will be unable to perform abstracting duties during this time period.

If the application is submitted after the expiration date, the license will be deemed to have expired and the applicant will be subject to requirements for obtaining a new license, including passing the test with a 70% pass rate.
